To help us process your claim please include any supporting documentation you have, which may include photos of any damage to the other person's property, any estimate for repairs you've been sent, any letter of claim you might have received from them, or a solicitor acting on their behalf. Don't worry if you don't have any documents, you should still tell us about the injury or damage so someone else's property that has happened.

Any documents can be emailed to moonrockclaims@uk.sedgwick.com along with this form
